A Couple of Notes About the Schedule: This schedule is a guideline that can be adjusted to fit your needs. Each lecture is approximately 4 hours long and available on demand for you to view at your convenience. If you end up starting the course later than anticipated, we can guide you through setting up a schedule that makes the most efficient use of your time. When you register, we'll also provide you with a daily calendar of assignments, so you'll know what you need to be doing from the day you start the course right through the last day of the bar exam.
